

FSC-Enterprises – market-leader of responsible forestry

Producers of timber and timber-related products with the FSC certificate are leading the trend of the future. Both consumers and traders are rewarding products from well-managed forests with the certificate of the Forest Stewardship Council.

FSC – Good marketing for good products

Under the auspices of the FSC Working Group Germany, the Association for the promotion of products from responsible forestry (FPW e.V.) offers committed FSC-enterprises to present your FSC products at the Interzum 2009. On the FSC market place, together with other FSC exhibitors, you will be able to offer your FSC products to customers from furniture production to interior decoration and furnishing from all over the world. Thanks to the concept of the market place, the customers can find all the timber components for their FSC products: FSC fitted kitchens, FSC upholstered furniture, FSC smaller items of furniture, FSC parquet flooring, FSC designed furniture, FSC store construction, FSC toys, FSC bedroom suites, FSC office furniture etc.
